```
                                                import pandas as pd
                                                 import numpy as np

                                    ('df = pd.read_csv('day11_income.csv

                                  (lower_p = df["income"].quantile(0.05 (upper_p = df["income"].quantile(0.95

                                                ()df_capped = df.copy (df_capped["income"] = df_capped["income"].clip(lower_p, upper_p df_removed = df[(df["income"] >= lower_p) & (df["income"] <= ()upper_p)].copy

                              ("--- print("--- Summary: Original Data (()print(df["income"].describe

                    ("--- (print("\n--- Summary: Capped Data (Winsorized (()print(df_capped["income"].describe

                     ("--- print("\n--- Summary: After Removing Outliers (()print(df_removed["income"].describe
```